

Milford Building Addition

CPT Logan Kenney, P.E.

28OCT2016

Agenda

- Background
- Problem
- Solution
- Acknowledgements
- Closing

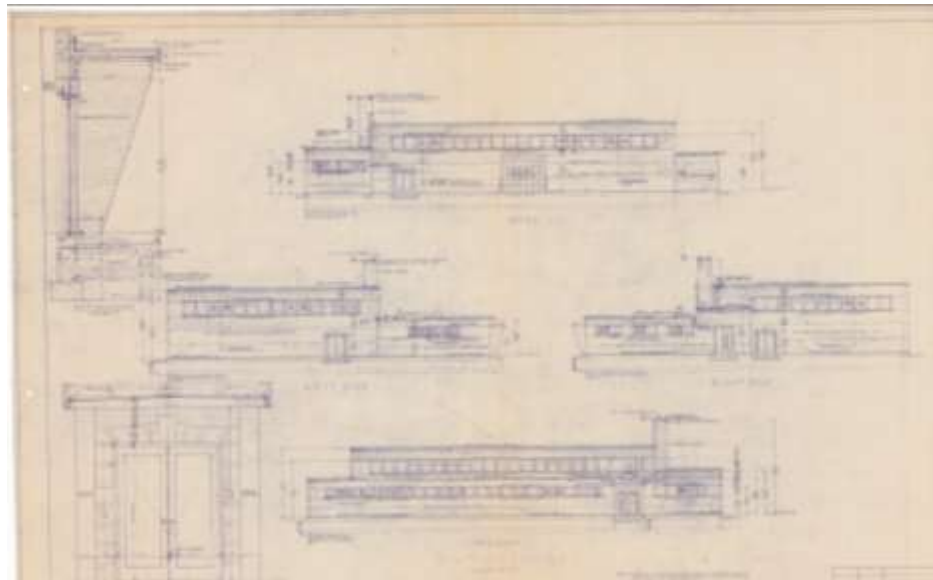

Agenda Item 1: Milford and Unit Background

Milford History

- Constructed in 1955
- Standardized design
- Irving W. Hersey Architect of record

Milford History

- One of the smallest in the State
 - Approx. 12,000 SF
- Houses one of the largest companies
 - 151 Infantry soldiers authorized

Classrooms

Full Time Offices

Crumbling Masonry

Parking Shortage

Agenda Item 2: Needs

Needs

- Evolution of the Army/National Guard
 - New technology demands
 - Larger equipment footprint
 - Modern needs/comforts
 - New Missions (CERFP)
 - High operational tempo for deployments

Agenda Item 3: Design Process

“Blanket” the Front

Initial Design

- “Boxes”
- Completely covered the front
- Adverse effect

Meetings with DHR-SHPO

- Developed a new approach
- Architect, DHR, and NHARNG team design
- Open discussions on needs and requirements

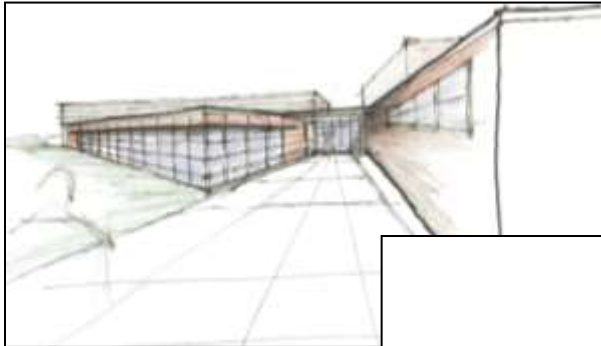

New Location Suggestion

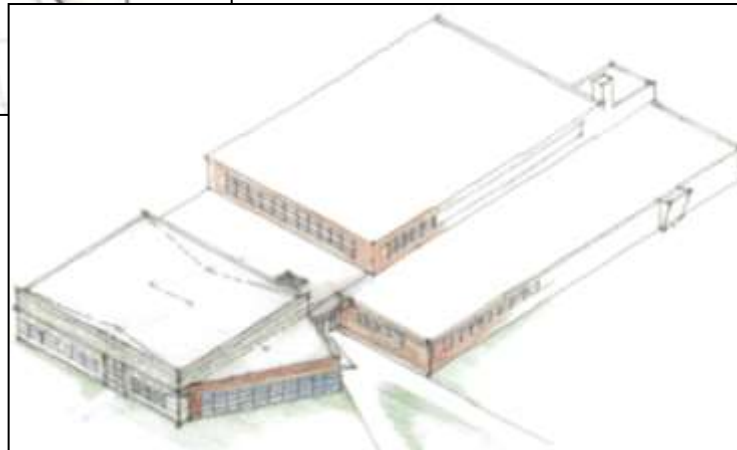

New Location Suggestion

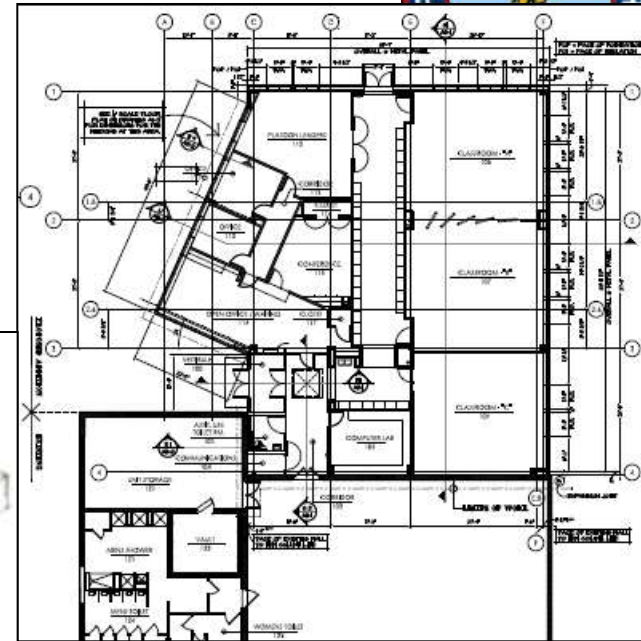

Solution

New Entrance

Aerial Sketch

New Floor Plan

New Floor Plan

Exterior Sketch

Design Highlights

- 6000+ SF building addition
- Greatly enhanced classroom and administration spaces
- Old admin areas can be utilized for lockers/gym to free up drill hall
- Replace original building's roof
- Restore interior roof hatch
- Clean Modern Look

New Main Entrance

New Classrooms

Distance Learning Classroom

New Offices

More Parking

Better Site Layout

Acknowledgements

- Scott Delorme, R.A., Dignard Architectural Group
- Nadine Miller, State Historic Preservation Office
- Eileen Chabot, NH Adjutant General's Department
- 1LT Braden Hunter, NH Army National Guard
- Stacy Clark, Turnstone Corporation
- Gary Brown, R.A., NH Bureau of Public Works

Closing/Questions

